Investment objective

The Trust aims to deliver long-term capital growth and to outperform the Benchmark over rolling five-year periods, before fees and taxes.

Investment style

Altrinsic is a high-conviction, fundamental, value-oriented global equity manager. It searches developed and emerging markets to uncover companies with unrealised value. Altrinsic only pursues an investment after in-depth, bottom-up, fundamental research with a focus on long-term drivers of intrinsic value.

Investment philosophy

Altrinsic invests based on the philosophy that a company's valuation is a function of its future financial productivity (return on capital relative to the cost of capital) adjusted for associated risk. By taking a long-term view, Altrinsic aims to capture returns from cross-border dislocations and undervalued securities in the world's equity markets.

Altrinsic's analysts capitalise on

- in-depth fundamental company analysis
- global industry knowledge, and
- distinctive cross-border perspectives to assess a company's intrinsic value. Altrinsic evaluates companies as if purchasing them outright with its own capital.

Indicative strategic asset allocation range

Global Emerging Markets<sup>1</sup>: 0%–30%

Global Developed Markets<sup>1</sup>: 50%–100%

Cash and cash equivalents: 0%–20%

Currency management

Trust units are denominated in the Australian dollar, however exposure to international assets in other currencies is not hedged to the Australian dollar.

Why Altrinsic?

Altrinsic is an employee-controlled and majority-owned organisation, whose interests are aligned with those of its clients.

Altrinsic searches the world seeking to uncover companies with unrealised value that others may have overlooked.

It pursues high-conviction investment in a select group of undervalued companies, aiming for outsized returns over five years. By taking a long-term view it can capitalise on cross-border dislocations across the full market-cap spectrum.

Altrinsic uses time-tested principles of fundamental, intrinsic-value investing and is not constrained by standard formulas for value. Altrinsic applies multi-layer risk controls and approaches each investment as an outright owner of the business.

Altrinsic incorporates prudent flexibility in its investment process, allowing it to capitalise on two broad types of investments:

Type 1: Undervalued businesses with strong and sustainable financial productivity.

Type 2: More deeply undervalued businesses with profitability levels that are expected to increase from depressed levels.

<sup>1</sup> Up to 15% of the Trust may be invested in small cap stocks (US$1.5 billion or less market capitalisation).
